Dear Wilson:

Thank you for sharing your ideas about the need for anti-crime legislation.

As my Administration works with Congress to approve an effective crime plan, I am grateful for your suggestions and your interest. Together, we can begin to build a foundation for a lasting peace on our streets and in our schools and communities.

I appreciate your involvement, and I will certainly keep your views in mind.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sterling,

Thank you for your letter to President Kim dated April 12, 2016, on road safety and telephone banking.

The World Bank is strongly committed to improving road safety in developing countries and is actively helping governments, through the Global Road Safety Facility, to meet their UN Decade of Action for Road Safety targets.

Please feel free to contact Mr. Raymond Soames Job, Lead Transport Specialist, Road Safety: sjob@worldbank.org and/or Marc Shotten, Program Manager, Global Road Safety Facility: mshotten@worldbank.org for any follow-up discussion.

Yours sincerely,
